For over 35 years, whether standing in front of a large audience or singing to female prisoners in Scotland, with authenticity and vulnerability Deborah communicates experiences of life-changing traumas and dark broken places, where faith and hope collide. With conviction she declares how grace, healing, courage, strength, and triumph have intersected it all.

Deborah is a JUNO Award winning artist and powerful communicator. She has performed in places such as Germany, England, Guam, Scotland, Canada, Sweden and the USA.

Earl Klassen's wife: Mother of two adult children, Ryan and Andréa; Mother-in-law to James: SAVTA [Hebrew for Grandmother] to Master Malakai and Miss Eliana; Daughter, Sister, Friend, Painter, Writer, Gardener, Passionate lover of books and all things beautiful.

“Thank you for taking your very personal pain and turning it into an extraordinary universal message of hope”.
